Mrs. James Thomas Flippen

The marriage of Miss Betty Lee Noel, daughter of Mrs. James Flannagan Noel and the late Mr. Noel, to James Thomas Flippen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stamps Flippen, of Danville, took place yesterday morning at 11 o' clock in West Main Baptist Church.

Dr. Howard W. Lee, pastor, performed the ceremony against a background of palms, ferns, white chrysanthemums, and gladioli.

Mrs. Floyd L. Shearin, organist, played the traditional wedding music including "The Lord's Prayer," by Malotte.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Crawford L. Davidson of Appomattox, the bride wore a gown of white Chantilly lace and silk organza over taffeta, designed with lace bodice, long sleeves ending in points, and bouffant skirt of organza featuring a matching sash embellished with satin roses extending the length of the skirt in the back. Her veil of illusion fell from a crown of satin and seed pearls. She carried a Chantilly lace fan with a white hybrid orchid and stephanotis. The bride's only ornament was a single strand of pearls.

Miss Sally Noel was maid of honor for her sister and Miss Peggy Phillips was bridesmaid. Miss Beverley Lou Davidson of Appomattox, cousin of the bride, was junior bridesmaid . Their dresses of emerald green velvet were made with scoop necklines, three quarter-length sleeves and bell-shaped skirts. They wore emerald green velet headpieces with matching gloves, and carried cascade bouquets of yellow pompon chrysanthemums.

Mr. Flippen served as best man for his son, Groomsmen were Robert Warren Noel, brother of the bride. Elbert Jay Parker Jr. of Lynchburg, cousin of the bride; and Halcott Townes Newman, cousin of the bridegroom.

Immediately after the ceremony the bride's mother entertained at a reception in the social hall of the church.

For travel the bride wore a beige wool suit accented with a wide mink fur collar, brown accessories, and the orchid from her bouquet.

After a northern wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Flippen will make their home in Danville.

She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Davidson, of Appomattox.

Early Mailing Is Requested

..."While the time to talk about 'Mail Early For Christmas' has passed," Postmasters at Appomattox, Pamplin, Evergreen and Spout Spring said today "last minute mailers can help us tremendously to avoid serious pile-ups of Christmas mail if they'll get all of their Christmas cards and gift packages on their way within the next twenty-four hours."

He suggests that you use Air Mail for every Christmas card and gift package going to distant places.

Here's a few of the Postmasters important reminder, about Christmas mail. Don't mail money in Christmas gifts or parcels . Use Postal Money Orders, or checks.  Be sure to include full name and address, postal zone numbers, and your return address, written or printed clearly on every card and package. While Christmas cards may be sent unsealed for a .3 rate, the 4 First Class sealed rate is best because it automatically assures forwarding if the addressee has moved and has left a new address, or the card is returned if it is undeliverable ,providing you have put your return address on it. Insure parcels and register letters of real value. Parcels containing delicate gifts must be marked "Fragile", and food stuffs should be marked "Perishable" if they are subject to spoilage.

The Appomattox County Postmasters expressed their great appreciation for the fine cooperation of the public so far, and went on to say, "Now that we are coming to the end of the big rush, let's all keep up the good work so we can have every mail bag empty and every Post Office employee relaxing at home on Christmas Eve."

Holiday Hours At Post Office

The Post Office service windows will remain open until 5 P. M. on Saturday, Dec. 16, to accept and deliver parcels and sell stamps. The Money Order service will close as usual at 1 P. M.

The Post Office will be open from 2 until 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon, for accepting and delivery of parcels and sale of stamps, Mail will be received and dispatched as on week days with the exception of the 6 P. M. dispatch.

Patrons are requested to avail themselves of this extra service to expedite the delivery of the holiday mail and to alleviate the anticipated rush on Monday.

Library Lists Holiday Hours

The Appomattox County Library will be closed on the following days during the Christmas season: December 25, 1961, and January 1, 1962.

From December 26 through December 29, the library will be open from 10:00 A. M. until 2:00 P. M.

P.-T. A. MEETING

SCHOLARSHIPS OFFERED HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS

High school seniors interested in studying food science and technology are eligible for consideration for 10 scholarships of $300.00 each offered by the Institute of Food Technologists.

Announcement of the availability of the scholarships was made by Dr. Anthony Lopez, professor of food technology in the department of horticulture at Virginia Polytechnic Institute. He said candidates interested in the scholarships being offered should request application forms from his office at VPI, Blacksburg, or from their high school principals.

Deadline for applications is March 1, 1962.

Dr. Lopez said this is the second year that the professional society of food technologists has sponsored IFT undergraduate scholarship awards. Ten recipients of the 1961 scholarships are now attending schools in various sections of the country.

Pamplin Judges For Decorations

Judging for the Christmas outdoor home decoration contest for Pamplin and vicinity will be on the evening of Friday, December 22. Cash prites of $5, $3 & $2 will be provided by the Pamplin Home Demonstration Club. The judges, business people from another community, will take note of every decorated house in the town limits. Residents in the outlying areas who would like their homes considered should notify Mrs. J. A. Williams or Mrs. J. L. Hart.

It is the hope of the club that the front and or the grounds of every home in the community will be decorated, however simply. Important considerations to the judges will be originality, beauty, clarity, and Christmas significance.

Front

New Trooper Stationed Here

On December 18, Trooper J. A. Crawford, Virginia State Police, who has just completed a 19-week basic training course in police work in Richmond, will report for duty in the Appomattox area. At the time of his appointment, his residence was Danville, Va. He married the former Miss Dixie Wray Blanks, of Danville. They have a daughter, Terrie, age 20 months. He graduated from George Washington High School, Danville, in 1956.

He served with the 101st Airborne Division, 1958-1961. He has an Expert Infantryman's Badge, Parachutist Badge and Ranger School.

He will replace former Tpr. P. C. Hollandsworth, who has been promoted Sgt. and transferred to South Boston.

ANIMATED CARDS

Ingenious mechanical devices were used to animate early Christmas greeting cards, much as they are today. The symbols of Christmas — the robin, Santa Claus, holly, mistletoe and carolers — first became popular on cards of the Victorian era.

Vera P.-T. A.

VERA P.-T. A.

The Vera P.-T. A. will meet on Tuesday, Dec. 19, at 7:30.

The primary pupils will present a Christmas program.

Yule Season In Appomattox Is In Stride

Appomattox settled down this week for the observance of a traditional Christmas season.

Merchants were reporting a fine pouring of merchandise, as the people got down to the serious business of making their annual gift purchases. Business appeared to be brisk at most establishments.

Starting tomorrow night, many stores will remain open each night through the holiday shopping period. Most stores have already been remaining open on Friday nights.

Special hours are announced as the post office, for Saturday and Monday.

Virtually all churches are announcing Christmas programs, with special services.

Christmas lights are on in downtown Appomattox, to add sparkle to the season.

Public schools are scheduled to close for the holiday, at the end of the school day, Dec. 20, for the extended holiday.

It was announced this week that the local Lions Club would not have its annual Santa Claus appearance this year, This has been a regular Christmas event here for many years, but due to a fall-off in attendance, the club decided not to stage the event this year.

However, Mayhall's Department Store, and perhaps others, will be presenting Santa Claus.
